

Book Our Training!

PPAL
Parent/Professional Advocacy League

MOVING TO YOUNG ADULT LIFE: TRANSITION PLANNING AND POST SECONDARY OPTIONS

Learn about transition planning, a formal process to help students with special needs think about what they want to do after high school, how to get there, and what supports and services can help them along the way.

December 18
10:00 - 11:30 AM
on Zoom

REGISTER NOW!
https://bit.ly/move-1218
or scan to see all events:

ABOUT PARENT/PROFESSIONAL ADVOCACY LEAGUE

The Parent/Professional Advocacy League, Inc. (PPAL) is a statewide family organization dedicated to improving the mental health and well being of children, youth, and families through support, education, and advocacy.

Parent Support
We offer 1:1 and group support for families of children with mental and behavioral health needs

Education
PPAL offers workshops and trainings for parents and professionals

Advocacy
PPAL works with parents and policy groups to improve children's mental health

PPAL.net

18 Lyman Street, Suite 260,
Westborough, MA 01581

Questions? Email Training@PPAL.net

Copyright © 2026 Parent/Professional Advocacy League, Inc. Rev. 8-25